2. Your Tax File Number

You don't have to give us your TFN. However, if you don't, your super contributions could be taxed an extra 34% and you won't be able to make contributions from your after-tax pay or income.

Do you agree to provide your TFN? No Yes. My TFN is

Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, we're authorised to collect your TFN, which will only be used for lawful purposes. These purposes may change in the future as a result of legislative change. We may disclose your TFN to another superannuation provider when your benefits are being transferred, unless you tell us in writing not to.

It's not an offence to not quote your TFN. However, giving us your TFN will have the following advantages, which may not otherwise apply.

- + We'll be able to accept all types of contributions to your account/s.
- + The tax on contributions to your superannuation account/s won't increase.
- + Other than the tax that may ordinarily apply, no additional tax will be deducted when you start drawing down your super.
- + It'll be easier to trace different superannuation accounts in your name so you receive all your superannuation benefits when you retire.

If you provide your TFN, we'll also provide your TFN to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO). Otherwise it will be treated as confidential.

3. We can help you find your other super

Would you like us to use your TFN to find any other super you might have and help consolidate your super accounts?

Yes No

If you'd like us to search for other super accounts you might have, we might need to provide your TFN to the ATO and other super funds.

4. Your signature

You must sign and date the form for us to update your account with your TFN.
